

2011 International Cup Set System

The June 17 version of the set system for the upcoming 2011 International Cup is now available and attached below, along with two corrections to that version.

- Aug 5: There is an error in the Junior B 2-Baton Order of Appearance. Three athletes (Kali Johnson, Kendra Rich and Louise Veitch) were inadvertently listed twice (copied again onto the next page where the Jr. B 2-Baton continues from one page to the next). They will compete on sets 86, 87, and 88 (Sets 89, 90, and 91 will be blank).
- Aug 6: The consolation round for the Junior B 2-Baton was left out of the Set System. The consolation round for this group will be on Saturday, August 6 - LANE 1 - beginning at Set # 49.

IF you have already printed the June 17 version, you can print the corrected pages for Aug 5 and Aug 6 and substitute.

IF you had not yet printed a set system, please use the July 23 version - it already contains the Aug 5 and Aug 6 corrections.

This year's International Cup uses a different system of rounds than has been used in the past - and very different from what is used at World Championships. To explain...

For Divisions with 8 or fewer competitors...

- Proceed directly to Finals. They will compete in Final Round in random order. Exceptions to this are:
 - Elite level, Individual events: always has a Preliminary. They will compete in Final Round in reverse order of finish from the Prelim.
 - Pairs, Team and Group events: always has a Preliminary. They will compete in Final Round in reverse order of finish from the Prelim.

For Divisions with 9-40 competitors...

- All athletes compete in a Preliminary Round
- Athletes finishing 9-16 move on to compete in the Consolation Final
- Athletes finishing 1-8 move on to compete in the Final

For Divisions with 41 or more competitors...

- All athletes compete in a Preliminary Round
- Athletes finishing 1-20 move on to compete in the Semi-Final round
- Athletes finishing 1-8 in the Semi-Final move on to compete in the Final

No scores are carried forward from the Preliminary and Semi-Final rounds.
