
Canada's Got Talent Auditions

The Canada's Got Talent show will be holding auditions throughout September and early October for a new series called Canada's Got Talent – similar to the American version.

They are looking for talent from all spheres - any act, any age, anything goes! The production company has contacted the Canadian Baton Twirling Federation directly to encourage teams and individuals to audition.

More information is available on the show website at www.gottalent.ca [1] and in the press release below. Specific question can be directed to:
