
Howard Worsnop

Howard Worsnop passed away on Monday, January 5th, 2009.

Howard has been a long time supporter of baton twirling in Canada with both the CNBTA and CBTF, and has served as the Vice President of the CNBTA for the past 10 years. Howard has dedicated his time at virtually every event as Tabulator, and an organizer of these events. His wife and long time supporter of baton twirling Connie Worsnop, father of former twirler and now coach Aileen Worsnop-Rhodes, grandfather of Starlight Destiny twirler Jamie Webster, and uncle of former twirler and now coach, Tori Sutton-Roi. Howard was also the proud father of his three sons, Craig, Mark, and Gorden.
