
CBTF Coaches Nominated for Chunky MVC

December 17, 2009 - Two CBTF coaches have been nominated for the Chunky MVC: Most Valuable Coach award, sponsored by TSN, Campbell's Soup and the Coaching Association of Canada. The 'nomination phase' of the contest will close on January 6, 2010. To this point, the coaches nominated so far are:

- Maureen Johnson [1] (Regina, SK)
- Tonya Lee [2] (Ajax, ON)

The nomination biographies for each can be viewed online at the Chunky MVC: Most Valuable Coach [3] website, or by clicking on the links above.

All coaches will be evaluated based on Personal Values: courage, determination, fairness. Social Values: sportsmanship, leadership and pride in the athlete/sport/community. Work Values: loyalty and dedication to the athletes/sport and Number of MVC fans.

You can show your support of our baton twirling coaches directly. Anyone with a Facebook account can add a testimonial or become a 'fan'. Go to the coaches' biography page and use the Connect with Facebook link.

Congratulations to these nominees!
