
Sponsorship Opportunities for the 2012 Canadian Team Trials

January 24, 2012 - The Ontario Baton Twirling Association (OBTA) is honoured to be hosting the 2012 Canadian Baton Twirling National Team Trials, being held at Georgian College in Barrie Ontario May 19 – 21, 2012. Athletes from across Canada will compete to become part of the Elite Team representing Canada at the 2012 WBTF World Baton Twirling Championships in Villebon sur Yvette, France in August! Up and coming athletes will also have the opportunity to compete in a national open event in conjunction with the National Team Trials!

Baton twirling is a sport for girls, boys, men and women and includes both individual and group events, and is recognized as a sport in the Province of Ontario. Opportunities exist for participation ranging from recreational level through competition at the world level. Athletes learn to perform difficult technical body moves while executing intricate baton skills. Baton Twirling is a thrilling sport for athletes and audiences alike. Routines are choreographed with intricate timing and precision, resulting in performances that are amazing in their difficulty and excitement.

Please take the time to watch this video [1] to get a better understanding of our sport. Prepare to be amazed!

The financial requirements of an event such as this are quite high. Sponsorship opportunities are described in the package attached below. Your support is appreciated.

Sponsorships will be gratefully received by the OBTA 2nd Vice-President, Heather Lyon. For further details, please contact Heather directly by email at 2ndvicepresident@obta.ca before March 31, 2012.
