However, please note that the Residence accommodation is only available after 5:00 pm on SUNDAY JUNE 28. Anyone arriving in time for the provincial practices on Saturday June 27, will need to make arrangements at other hotels for, at least, one night before being able to get into the College Residences. ABTA has worked diligently on trying to provide excellent and reasonably priced accommodation however the College had already been booked by another large group up to the morning of June 28th and no changes could be made to their reservations.

There MAY BE rooms available closer to the date because of possible cancellations but our suggestion would be to book your group into one of the following hotels should you arrive earlier than June 28th:
